

Chapter 7 describes the key weather factors referenced in the field, namely temperature and relative humidity. The chapter content includes information on dry bulb and wet bulb temperatures, dew point, and using a psychrometric table to determine the moisture content of the air.