Submit Documentation

- Gather all your notes, photos, videos, and any other documents into one package.
- Submit to your lead investigator/agency representative.

- When the investigator shows up, remember you are on the same team. Assist in any way you can.
- The fire investigator will request all photos taken including photos taken on personal cameras, regardless of what they are, and any notes made related to the fire.

Slide 4

• Your responsibility does not end when you have accomplished your basic duties.

Slide 5

Cautions: Confidentiality and Media

- Do not discuss the investigation.
- Keep media, general public, and all fire personnel away from entering the general origin area for protection/integrity of the scene.
- Forward media inquires to the investigator or appropriate individual in your agency.

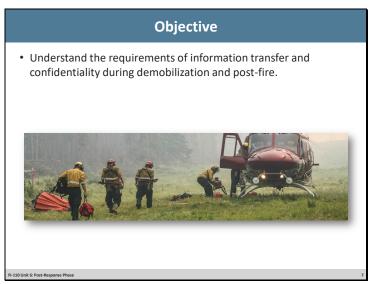

• Confidentiality of the investigation: remember your job is to gather information, not to transmit it.
